Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Synopsis: Remember the era when people loved living in Christian community? So why not bring that way of life to a community of churches in which longtime members of cavernous, cathedral-type buildings open their lives and belongings to homeless churches? For decades now, God has been bringing revival to the US through immigrant church startups exploding with fearless vigor while many of our once stalwart churches continue to coddle a handful of folks each Sunday. By concentrating on placing people s hands in the hand of Jesus, we can create a community of churches under one steeple, then under another steeple, then another, unlocking every room and every heart! The spiritual lessons identified in this volume may just be the key to faithful behavior in Western society in the twenty-first century! - Anthony G. Pappas Executive Minister The American Baptist Churches of Massachusetts The stories are so real, and the...
