The plans for the years work include regular gymnasium classes for all members of all departments of the church activity. This will comprise exercise on and with the gymnastic apparatus, games and special features. It is proposed, also, to offer during the year lectures and courses in First Aid. Health and Hygiene, Sex Hygiene, and kindred subjects of special bearing on individual and community health. These lectures will be open to all members of the gymnasium classes. Special activities will be planned for the spring and summer, including contests, games and camps. Although all plans are not at the present time complete this brief sketch will give a somewhat adequate idea of the scope of the work. REPORT OF THE SOCIAL SERVICE COMMITTEE. Last spring a sub-committee was appointed to compile a rooming and boarding-house directory for the immediate neighborhood about the church as it was learned that such a directory was greatly needed by the many students coming to Chicago who desire to room and board on the North Side. This committee has secured the names and addresses of many good homes of this sort, and will be pleased to furnish the list upon application. Steps have also been taken by other members of the committee to secure employment in cases where it is urgently needed. Instances of this sort which come to the notice of church members may be referred to either Mr. Terry or...
