Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from English Literature in the Ninth Grade Questions for Discussion (see Sec. II.) It will readily be seen what essays and discussions should be had during the progress of the first reading, and what must be left till afterwards. It would be well to have the pupils mark in the margins the references to customs, dress, and superstitions, as well as the flowers and birds mentioned by the author, so that these things can readily be referred to. The date of the action, the locality of the scene, also the characters, principal and subordinate, should be kept in mind. [Note - Attention given, during the first reading, to the elements, both poetic and dramatic, which serve to unite all the parts of the poem into one coherent whole, may do much to counteract the narrowing and fragmentary tendency of the later analytical work and study of details generally. Some of the following threads of unity may be noticed: Unity of poetic form, including (a) metre, (b) blank verse, and (c) symmetry of parts, - Introduction, Part...
