Excerpt from Dedication of the Lord Howe Memorial Tablet: At St. Peter's Church in the City of Albany on Memorial Sunday Extract from Minutes of the Vestry Meeting of St. Peter's Church, Albany, held February 6th, 1914 The Rector read a letter from Mrs. W. G. Rice proposing a memorial in the vestibule of St. Peter's Church to Lord Howe, whose remains are buried in a vault beneath the vestibule. She submitted also a drawing by Marcus T. Reynolds, Esq., and an estimate of the cost of such a slab of black slate. On motion of Mr. Pruyne, Mrs. Rice's proposal was referred to the Committee on Memorials with authority to accept the tablet and to raise the sum specified. Mr. Wadham moved that the Clerk be requested to acknowledge the receipt of Mrs. Rice's letter and to express to her the interest and appreciation of the Vestry in her undertaking and to state the action of the Vestry at this meeting. Carried. Letter of Mrs. William Gorham Rice February 4, 1914 To...

Reviews

Extensive information for book fans. It is written in basic words and never hard to understand. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.

This publication is great. It is full of wisdom and knowledge. You will not really feel monotony at any time of the time (that's what catalogs are for relating to when you ask me).
